This ISO workshop will explore the question, “how will digital transformation transform our society and our industries?” – participants will work collaboratively, using foresight tools to explore alternative futures.

This event will be part of the annual conference of the European Academy for Standardisation (EURAS), which will be held at The University of Glasgow from 10 to 12 June. The 2020 conference will consider the role of standards and innovation in digital transformation.

More information on the workshop programme and registration will follow. The ISO event will be free of charge ; participants wishing to attend the rest of the conference should register at www.euras.org.
